

Legion Meat Draw

Every month the Legion holds a “Meat Draw”. WHAT is a meat draw.

The “draw” is made using a “Crown and Anchor” type wheel. Entrants purchase, for $2.00, a ticket corresponding to one of the wheel positions. There are 27 positions. The wheel is spun and whoever holds the ticket corresponding to where the wheel stops wins the meat item being offered.

Every draw night there are ten (10) separate draws. You must have a ticket for EACH separate draw. It would cost you $20.00 if you purchased a ticket for every draw. There is a unique cut of meat offered for each draw and you have the option to “buy-in” or not.

Meats offered could be something like; meat roast, pork roast, chicken cordon blue etc.
